

SEAWEEK 2005: SAVE OUR SHARKS
A selection of published journal articles and books
focusing primarily on Australian shark species

CONTENTS

- General Shark References p1
- The diversity and biology of sharks and rays p3
- Role of sharks in the ecosystem p8
- The vulnerability of particular shark species, focusing primarily on critical habitat areas, current threats and status:
 - Great white p9
 - Grey nurse p10
 - Whale shark p11
- Safe swimming and diving guidelines p12
- The cultural significance of sharks to indigenous peoples p12
- Shark fisheries (including selected reports) p13
